ANOTHER GREAT ENGAGEMENT.

pleted, and he believes it to be the best he has yet written. The following nunouncement from the author's graceful pen will be greeted with enthusiasm by his tens of thousands of admirers: A CARD.

TO THE READERS OF "BUCK BISON," "NICK WHIP-FLES," "ONE-EYED SAUL," ETC.

To those who have followed my heroes and heroines over the Western Trail, and to the far trapping-grounds of the Great North, I beg leave to announce that I am now engaged in preparing another Serial, the scenes of which transpire in the same wild latitudes, and which I shall endeavor to render worthy the attention of my former readers. It will be perceived that I have chosen a section of country in which daily events transcend the feeble fancies of fiction—where incident crowds upon incident, and wild adventure and daring deeds are inevitable things.

The title of my new story will be

PATHAWAY;

Or,
THE MOUNTAIN OUTLAWS. A TALE OF THE NORTHERN TRAFFING GROUNDS.

A TALE OF THE NORTHERN TRAPPING GROUNDS.

"PATHAWAY" will be published in the columns of THE NEW-YORK MERCURY, to which journal I have engaged to contribute executively for a term of years. To my numerous readers I would return my sincere thanks, and shall ever hold in grateful rembrance those who, by their partiality and favor, have contributed to my success. If we do not jog along together as heretofore, mutually pleased with each other, I trust it will not be through want of effort on my part to continue to merit their approbation. Those who have taken an interest in the "difficulties" of Nick Whiffless—a character pretty extensively known—may very possibly find in "PATHAWAY" a character of his name and nature, whose exploits and drolleries will not shame those of other years. In abort, it is my purpose to produce a story that shall excel other productions of my pen, in the novelry of its situations, in truthfulness of delineation, intricacy of plot, and rapid succession of incident.

It will be illustrated by DARLEY.

It is our mission, by honorable competition will ever be faithfully performed. "PATHAWAY" will be commenced in THE NEW-YORK
